The Greatest Play You Ever Saw

Have you, while watching a game of baseball on the sandlots in Richmond, or in any town or city where The Times-Dispatch is read, witnessed a remarkable play?

If you have, and can tell about it in 200 words, send it to The Times-Dispatch, and if it is printed in this newspaper a check of 50 cents will be forwarded you.

This contest is open to any boy or man, girl or woman, irrespective of age, and is intended primarily to bring out the sensational and remarkable plays made by amateurs.

Much has been written by professional baseball players relative to what they think was the most remarkable play they ever witnessed, and umpires, too, have had their say. The Times-Dispatch is anxious for the spectators to have their inning, and the contest is open to everybody who will follow these brief rules:

Write plainly and on only one side of the paper. Keep your story within 200 words.

If you can, tell who made the play, how it was made, and when and where it was made.

Sign your name and give street and city address Address all communications to Amateur Baseball Editor, The Times-Dispatch

Begin to-day by trying to remember where you saw a play which caused you to sit up and wonder. Get the facts together and write your story so it will set before the reader the play as you witnessed it.

TIGERS ARE TRIMMED

Detroit, July 20.—New York trimmed the Tigers, 10 to 5, in the first game of the series. Rain interrupted the affair in the second inning. Play was resumed after an hour's delay on a diamond so muddy that anything like good work was impossible. The Yankees drove Hall from the box by clean hitting, but errors figured largely in the three runs made off House in the fifth period. Warhop got careless in the seventh, passing Cobb and Crawford, after which Veach, Gainor and McKee singled, scoring three runs and making Detroit's only display of strength of the day. The score:

Work of Griffith's Men Stands Out in American League Roll.

New York, July 20.-Individuals, more than clubs, figured as points of salient interest in the baseball history firm hold on the bottom rung of the ladder.

Southern Association pitchers have been having a hard time with the heavy hitters. Norman Elberfeld, whose continued absence from the game is said to have done much to slow up the Chattaneoga club, leads the batters, with a percentage of 343 in sixty-one games played.

Salient interest in the baseball history of last week. The change in the management of the world's champions, the Walsh to the game, the advent of the latest "highest priced" ball player in Chappelle, the trouble over the Hall Chappelle, the trouble over the Hall Chappelle, the strength of the first bout on the St. Louis bench at a game between Chase deal and the listic bout on the St. Louis bench at a game between the Giants and Cardinals, in New York—such developments were sufficient to keep the enthusiasts from devoting all their attention to the progress of the
